Big Fundraising News for KPETS!

KPETS just received a letter stating "The Lancaster Medical Society Alliance has honored your organization's request with a partial grant of $1000. The monies are to be used to assist with the cost of printing brochures to inform clients and their families of the benefits and ability to participate in KPETS services free of charge."

Terri Trimble, KPETS volunteer, took an afternoon away from her very hectic busy schedule to fill out this grant application for KPETS from Lancaster Medical Society Alliance (Physicians' spouses dedicated to the health of America). Coming up with all the right words to say and in what order to say them took several hours. She knew what to specifically ask for - so it would be something that fit the criteria for fund usage. This was all her doing, only conferring with Karen for the statistical info of KPETS. Terri, we are grateful for your efforts!

This is exciting news for us and we could not have accomplished this without Terri's professional expertise in applying for these funds. We'll keep you posted as the brochure develops and is ready for distribution.

To add to this excitement, Laura just emailed me about another grant application in our area. We sent for the application and just received it a few minutes ago. We're hoping we can supply the necessary information and meet the requirements to be accepted for this one as well.

If there is anyone who can help us with this process, please do contact me asap. These things need to be done on a timely manor, and experience in this type of venture is so key. There is so much more out there to be applied for. If you or someone you know would be interested in helping out, we would really love to hear from them.

Thanks again Terri! You're awesome!

-Karen Gerth

The Kitty Lit Her!

Leanne Spurlin provided the following in an e-mail to Karen Gerth after conducting the first site assessment for Ralph Bice and his KPETS cat, Colonel:

"I was so excited after this evening's evaluation of Ralph Bice's cat Colonel, that I just had to email you right away. During the visit, Colonel visited with a woman who has been totally unresponsive for four months (according to the aide). Anyway, while Colonel was lying next to her in bed, curled up in her arm, she smiled, laughed, tried to talk in response to questions, moved her head and eyes to follow us....it was like witnessing a miracle! We stayed with her for half an hour. The aide was astounded and made a note to pass it on to her supervisor."

Leanne goes on to say that Colonel is some amazing cat - she says Colonel is more gentle, quiet, and contented than any dog she's ever seen.

Way to go Ralph and Colonel! What a great addition to the KPETS family of therapy teams!

If you shop on the web, go to www.igive.com. Sign up, and choose KPETS as your cause. A percent of the cost of your order will be donated to KPETS. MANY stores to choose from!

Halloween Happenings...A Recap

PET HEADQUARTERS PARTY

Gini and Tucker at the Pet Headquarter's Halloween parade.

Several parades and parties occurred during the Halloween season. Here are recaps and photos of a few...

MASONIC HOMES PARTY -

Saturday, October 28th dawned with remnants of rain, but that did nothing to dampen the spirits of dog, handler or guest at our Halloween event at the Masonic Homes in Elizabethtown, PA.

Seven teams delighted about 40 residents and their families with stories, costumes, games, tricks, and the ever popular person-to-pup petting.

Special guests included the watchers of the Rainbow Bridge, Smidgen the boxing dog (guess the breed if you can), doctor Otis, two clowns - human and canine - on leave from the circus, and a Yorkie, Smidge (not to be confused with Smidgen) who visits Masonic Homes almost every day and is planning to join the KPETS team.

The obvious joy on all faces was yet more proof of how important this dog/human connection is.

As the day grew more windy and the crowd dwindled down, three teams took the opportunity to visit the dementia unit with a gentleman whose wife missed their own dog terribly. It is so rewarding to see the response of not only the residents, but also the staff, when these well-behaved, loving animals come to visit.

The birds in their cages greatly interested the hunting breeds, but they remembered they were KPETS dogs and maintained their focus!

If you have never participated in one of the larger events, you have missed out on a great time. And as we all know, more opportunities about than we could ever respond to, but we'll keep on trying!

Thanks to all who attended.

-Mimi Sigworth

PENNSBORO PUMPKIN FEST

Lisa and Lilly, manning the KPETS Booth at the Pennsboro Pumpkin Fest on October 7 - 8 at Adams-Ricci Park in Enola

And what a great time and turn out at the LITITZ HALLOWEEN PARADE! It looked like all of Lititz came out to watch the parade. All of the streets were lined with people enjoying the parade and children waiting to collect candy. Our costumes really caught the attention of the crowd and judges. We received a consolation prize for our creativity! What a wide range of costumes we had, from the angel and devil mastiffs, Brenda and Indy's jockey and horse, Gini and Tucker's cops and robber getup complete with Tucker riding behind bars, a coach and Basketball player, a chocolate chip cookie that read 'Got Milk?', and many other great getups! Everyone did such a great job coming up with creative and fun costumes! I can't wait to see what you come up with next year!

KPETS Invades Manheim

With the smells of fair food, the noise of tractors, and the music of bands in the air, KPETS came to Manheim for the annual Farmshow Parade on Wed. October 11. KIP and eight of his canine friends joined in the fun. The streets were lined with people and some of the dogs felt it was their duty to meet and greet each and every spectator. Fun was had by dog and handler alike.

Thank you to all who participated and a special thank you to LuAnn who was our lead car in the parade. Hope to see everyone there next year!

-Bev Smith

Lebanon Valley Mall Pet Expo

This event keeps getting better and better for us. The first year we participated I staffed the booth pretty much on my own. This was our third year and except for a few hours Friday morning, we had enough teams to staff the entire weekend! The Lebanon area KPETS group keeps getting larger and larger! Teams helping out were Nan Hanshaw-Roberts and Smidgen, Sylvia Flinchbaugh and Tippy, Steph Kimmel and Zeus, Christy Hartman and Isis, Tammy Hocker and Luke, Cindy Wilson and Casey, Bev Smith and Rosie, Cathy Farr and Sophie and last but not least Reni and myself. Everyone spent the weekend discussing the impact pet therapy has had. We gave out a lot of brochures. We even sold a few items to earn close to $110!

My intent for early next year is to start having orientations and pre-assessments at Pet HeadQuarters in Palmyra. Hopefully that means the Lebanon group will continue to grow.

-Laura Whitman

Tis the Season!

It's hard to believe but the holidays are upon us! Everyone is shopping, shopping, shopping!!

But don't forget to sign up for igive.com for all your internet shopping. The list of stores that contribute to our cause is very long!!!

All you have to do is go to igive.com and sign up and designate KPETS as your cause. When ever you shop at one of the stores, a certain percent is donated to KPETS.

But then there is another gift idea this year! Why not give your friends a KPETS calendar - choice of two.

Laura has been working hard at getting one ready for Hershey Medical Center and Jenny Rule has been busy pulling together a KPETS calendar for everyone.

The photo shot held in Lancaster for the 2007 KPETS calendar was held on 10/15 with Terry Rowe of Pet Portraiture (www.rowepetart.com) doing the photography. Jenny and Mimi Sigworth have worked hard at getting the printing lined up. Engle Printing will be doing the printing so these calendars will be better than ever.

Hershey Medical Center KPETS calendar is going to be awesome too. Harpels in Lebanon has been so accommodating - from the photographer Elizabeth Rodriguez being so patient with working around our schedules and using her experienced eye to suggest appropriate shots, to Rick Harpel who so graciously agreed to produce the calendar for us. We can't forget Andy who did the sample and will be printing all the pages. From orders Laura already has, she is projecting at least 100 sales once the calendar gets circulated throughout the hospital.

Get your list together now and let Jenny or Laura know how many you will need to meet your holiday shopping needs.

Round Table - new location!

Don't forget the Volunteer Round Table at 6:30 on Dec 7 at Moveable Feast in Mountville.

A get-together for a relaxing evening of food and down-right good company. The buffet is $14.95 or $15.95 & includes drinks, salad bar, veggie, entree & dessert. This time the entree will be Chicken Cordon Bleu. Gratuity is included so there's no tipping. A light entrée is available but be sure to let Carl know if this is your choice.

We can chat all through dinner about all the wonderful experiences we've had. We all love to talk about so many different pet-related topics, but guess what! - everyone will be interested!

So RSVP to Carl Speros so we can let the restaurant know how many to expect. (717) 397-7882 or misskatiesdad@webtv.net.

See you there! Directions

Lancaster Paper Visit!

Thursday, October 19, 2006
KPETS visited Lancaster Newspapers, Inc. as part their United Way Campaign.

This was the second year in a row that Sammy, Rocky and Mollie got to visit with the employees and executives. The dogs helped to improve moral and had everyone smiling as they walked from department to department. The dogs were invited to visit with the executives were Sammy put on a nice show that had everyone talking for days.

I kept receiving e-mails asking if the dogs could come back on another day to visit because they made the day a lot more fun!

Pet First Aid Offered Again

Since the first Pet First Aid class was so successful, KPETS is holding a second class. We changed the venue to try to accommodate other folks. It will be held at Pet Head Quarters in Palmyra on December 2nd at 3 pm. The store is located at 501B East Main Street. Cost is $30 for the class and $22 for a first aid kit in a fanny pack. Since our own Nan Hanshaw-Roberts will be leading the class, a portion of the cost will be used as a donation to KPETS. Contact Laura Whitman at pet\_headquarters@verizon.net or 838-7387 to register. Class size is limited to 15 people. Registration for the class can be taken up until the date of the class. Deadline to order a kit is Wednesday, November 22.

KPETS at Senior Expo

For the first time KPETS had the opportunity to participate in the Masonic Village Senior Expo held Friday October 20 from 9 am to 12 pm in the Brossman Ballroom, sponsored by Senator David Hickernall's office. There were 34 vendors present and approximately 400 people attend the event. KPETS even donated a raffle basket full of pet supplies.

The KPETS team of Gini Swartzell and her Pomeranian Tucker offered to man the booth for the morning. Not only did Gini help spread the word about pet therapy, she also tried to help a gentleman who was in tears telling her he needed to find a home for his dog. It's a corgi mix, so if anyone knows someone who might be interested, contact Gini.

Help Wanted!

Keynotes Editor is needed asap: This job can be a lot of fun for someone who likes newsletter layout and computers (MS Publisher) tasks and wants to be in the loop of KPETS activities.

KPETS Keynotes comes out around the 15th of every month. Articles come in to keynotes@kpets.org all month long so the layout can be done throughout the month. You will give you access to that email account or we can have it forward directly to your current email address.

Anne Miller who has been doing an outstanding job for the past several months recently got a promotion at work that is a lot more demanding of her time. And rightly so, has decided that she needs the time away from work to be dedicated to her son and husband. Anne, thanks so much for all you've done. You have done so much for KPETS Keynotes!
